

SUFE Law & Finance – Ph.D. Program given in English

Introduction

Our English-taught Ph.D. Program in Law and Finance is a program for postgraduate law students provided by the Law School of the Shanghai University of Finance & Economics (SHUFE Law), and it is a crucial part of the Law and Finance subject.

The Shanghai University of Finance & Economics (SUFE) is one of the most renowned universities in China today. In 2012, SUFE was selected as Cultivation Base of Extraordinary Legal Professionals by the Ministry of Education (practical & interdisciplinary type). It was incorporated into the Shanghai University Construction Plan of First-Class Disciplines (Type B), the National Legal Practice and Cultivation Base, the National Example of Comprehensive Discipline Reform by Ministry of Education, and received the title as a Key Discipline of Shanghai.

Curriculum

The study period of this Ph.D. program is three years in total, which includes two semesters of taught courses and four semesters of research and thesis writing. All of the courses are taught in English. The lecturers include the official staff of the Law School and some experts from the field of law. Our international students are required to have a minimum of 20 credits (including 15 for compulsory course and 5 for optional course) and pass all of the course examinations.
